MELIOR ADDS NON EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR TO THE BOARD

Toronto, Ontario, July 8, 2019 – Melior Resources Inc. (TSXV: “MLR”) (“Melior” or the “Company”) today announced that Mr Philip Day would be joining the board as a non-executive director effective 8 July 2019.

Phil is head of the Technical and Operations Team at Pala, with oversight of all technical matters relating to Pala’s investments. Phil has over 20 years’ experience in mining projects globally, focusing on operations, design and consulting. Phil joined Pala in early 2014, and has been directly involved in operations and development projects with several portfolio companies and has been in the roles of COO for both Sierra Rutile Limited and Nevada Copper Corp. during ramp up/turnaround and construction periods.

Prior to joining Pala, Phil worked for AMEC Americas as Vice President for Process Engineering. In this role, Phil was primarily responsible for the function and growth of the Process Engineering group for projects and studies. He managed a number of major projects throughout South and North America. Previously he worked in operational, managerial and technical roles for BHP Billiton, WMC Resources, Minara Resources and Wiluna Gold, gaining exposure to various commodities, including nickel (sulfides and laterites), copper, gold and fertilizers.

Martyn Buttenshaw, Melior Resources Chairman said, “I am very pleased to welcome Phil to the Melior Board. Phil’s significant technical and operational experience will be invaluable as the Company looks to complete ramp-up of the Goondicum mine and enter steady-state operations”.

Mr Day’s appointment remains subject to final TSXV approval.
